

Delia Gutierrez McLaughlin
Board Member

Delia is the President and CEO of Coda Consulting Group and brings extensive experience in leveraging technology to deliver competitive business advantage. Prior to creating her own company, she was the Director of Outsourced Vendor Management for Aon's Corporation's Chicago-based Technology Services and Solutions team. Delia leveraged her 20 years of experience in information technology, telephony, and software development to provide governance and oversight for all technology projects assigned to the Technology Services and Solutions team. Delia managed the escalation for all end-user issues within Aon Hewitt by providing an added layer of leadership between Aon and their vendors.

Delia joined the Gads Hill Center Board of Directors in 2010.